The purpose of this study was to assess the pediatric prehospital emergency medical services (PEM) system in a pediatric academic medical center. The number of patients transported by PEM from January 2000 to December 2003 was collected from the PEM database. Various emergency medical services (EMS) metrics including patient satisfaction, clinical outcomes, number of transported patients, and physician billing metrics were compared. The number of transported patients was 297,709. The majority (80%) of these patients were transported by ALS providers, 6% by PALS providers, 10% by PEM providers, and 4% by other personnel. The average transport time was 25 minutes. At-scene pediatric resuscitation occurred on 27% of patients. Pediatric patients who were transported by PEM providers versus other personnel were less likely to require pediatric critical care unit admission (1%

Dari manga untuk kue. The common English term for this manga is "Fruits Basket" (or "Fruits Basket") and, although the name itself is not unique, it is often used to describe this type of manga. In fact, it is typically known to have specific characteristics that make it easier to spot than similar manga titles. However, many don't actually know what it is, or assume it's a modern manga, as they haven't seen it before. The Japanese term for this manga is "フルーツバスケット" (furūtsu basuketto), where "furūtsu" means "fruit" and "basuketto" means "basin". And this term is derived from the title of the original light novel and also the Manga. But the Japanese title is also usually confused with the other similar-sounding "Fruit Basket". Tohru in the manga The series tells the story of the timid Tohru and the antics of her friends as they grow up together. Tohru is the third of eight siblings, born in 1981 and living in the village of Hinata with her family. She is beautiful with a calm personality, but often in a state of confusion. She has few close friends. Tohru's parents divorced when she was young, and Tohru lives with her mother. Tohru's primary role in the series is to love and care for her family. She is a dutiful daughter, a faithful friend, and a loyal and caring sister. Sakuya in the manga The characters of the series are high school students, in the town of Hinata, in Japan. The protagonists are Tohru and her friends, Satsuki, Miku, and Yuki. Tohru and her friend, Satsuki are best friends. Their school's name is "Hinata High School" Satsuki in the manga Satsuki is Tohru's best friend. Her parents divorced when she was young and she lives with her father. Satsuki is a kind girl. She has a reserved attitude and is quiet. She likes books and reading, and often has thoughts that she's not able to express. She's a kind, respectful, and cute girl. Miku in the manga Miku is Tohru's friend.
