Each varietal is stored and aged in our own cellars and distributed to restaurants, stores and hotels in both Slovenia and Austria. The taste of a few years past along with the current trends are the driving forces behind all of the released wine. For each of our single vintages we always use the same approach for the picking of grapes. This allows us to fully concentrate on the quality of each individual grape, getting the best possible result from each vineyard and vinification. This goes without saying, but is our secret that has never been disclosed. Our work is not complete until the bottles are in the shops and restaurants. Although we offer a range of wines, we pride ourselves on meeting our customers needs. Our team is always ready to assist and answer any questions. All the wine bottles are hand crafted in Slovenia, so you can be sure your bottles have no artificial sweeteners, dyes, additives or preservatives. What is a reserve wine? A reserve wine is a bottle of wine which has received a perfect score from the UK's top-ranked wine magazine "Decanter". We have decided to open only a few of these top scorers each year. It is something that is more than a novelty. It is a reflection of our dedication and passion for the best grapes and wine. We strive to make our customer's wine experience unique and unforgettable. We hope that you will appreciate and enjoy our reserve wines. Not all wines are perfect. Some of them are not very good, other may get damaged during the winery process and sometimes they just don't fit our criteria, but we still keep them in our collection.
