It's rice! It's an easy way to make healthy rice at home! Just turn up the heat and the stocker will automatically add rice to the pot, keeping it warm all the time. Great for your first time making rice! \o/ Supplies: 1ALGO stocker (www.algorice.com) 2Time/water dispenser (www.time-rice.com) 3Rice (ALGO or otherwise) 4Cooking pot 5Cooking line (optional) 6Rice measuring cup Instructions: 1. Fill the time/water dispenser with 12+ cups of water and set it to the desired temperature. (I like 140° F.) 2. Place the stocker and the time/water dispenser on your counter or somewhere else easy to reach. 3. Fill your pot with water. 4. Add the correct amount of rice. (As per instructions on the ALGO stocker) 5. Add the prepared time/water dispenser. 6. Bring your water to a boil. (Take note of your time and turn off the pot once boiling.) 7. Set your timer for 10-15 minutes. (You can adjust the duration of cooking to fit your preference.) 8. When time is up, remove the stocker and fill it with water if needed. 9. Strain the rice through a sieve and place it in a large mixing bowl. 10. With a fork, gently fluff the rice to make it fluffy. 11. Add the salt, pepper, and spices. 12. Mix thoroughly and enjoy! Cost: $26.99 Like, share, and help me become a REALITY JUMPER!
