Body camera footage released Tuesday by the Denver Police Department shows an unnamed officer pointing a gun at a man from the backseat of a police SUV as he is being rushed into custody. The man was arrested for allegedly trying to use a fake police badge and a gun to enter a restaurant. Police said the incident began when officers responded to a report of a man posing as a police officer. The man was trying to enter a restaurant with a handgun. The footage shows the man being searched as he is being put into a police vehicle. Then, as he's being put in the vehicle, the man reaches into his pants and pulls out a gun. The man was then pulled from the car and escorted into the restaurant.
