1988, and ended in the Olympic Stadium in front of 7,000 athletes and about 500,000 spectators. The race was won by Kenya's Josephine Tokumpo, who covered the course in 2:37:50 hours. The race was marred by the death of Spanish runner Jorge Uceda, who collapsed in the race and died shortly after arriving in the medical facility. Uceda's sister, Susana Uceda, still holds the race record, with her time of 2:26:59 hours. Four women completed the course in less than two hours; two of them were part of the winning team.
