Mr Singh on Wednesday said he would not be "impressed" by the way Bihar's Lalu Prasad Yadav runs his ministry. "I do not know him (Lalu Prasad Yadav), but I won't be impressed by the way the Bihar Government runs its Railway Ministry," said the former Railways Minister in an interview with the Mint newspaper. "I wish him good luck. I hope he gets better administrators and thus, a successful ministry, soon. Bihar gets a bad name among the citizens of India. They cannot see enough ministers coming from the state to do what is good for the country," the minister said. He did not express his opinion in public, but the comments were recorded in the newspaper's interview with him. Lalu Prasad Yadav has been the Railways Minister in Bihar since 1989. Mr Singh's comments triggered the ire of the former minister in the state, who has been at the centre of
