Ultra Audio Recorder v7.4.4.278 Serial Ultra Audio Recorder v7.4.4.278 Serial Ultra Audio Recorder v7.4.4.278 Serial wtf, I cannot access secure content. UPDATE: I'm on the most restrictive firewall in the world (Firewalla) and I still cannot access this file. UPDATE2: I've tried to re-download, and restarting and reloading, but the 'reset cookie on server' feature doesn't work. UPDATE3: I'm logged in as a different user than I was the last time I checked. UPDATE4: I am now back in the same user that I was before. And of course, all files are gone. What did you people do to my files? I don't know how I'm here. The system log says I "changed my password on a client site", but I don't remember doing that. HELP!!! UPDATE: The cookieless feature worked. But it's still a problem that I can't access secure content and that no one will be able to access any of my files If anyone can help me with that I would appreciate it. UPDATE #2: The file is in the directory of the default browser as an extension "html" but it's just a bunch of binary data. When I click on it Firefox crashes and a blue browser icon flashes at the top right hand of the screen. I just tried to open up the directory and see if there is a file name that I can read, and the browser starts to open, but it seems like I can only open a single file at a time. UPDATE #3: There are no errors in the log, but there is also no indication of how to get back to the Home page. It's just a blank box. UPDATE #4: The home page is a blank white page. I tried to open a
